The Tasmanian Theatre Company

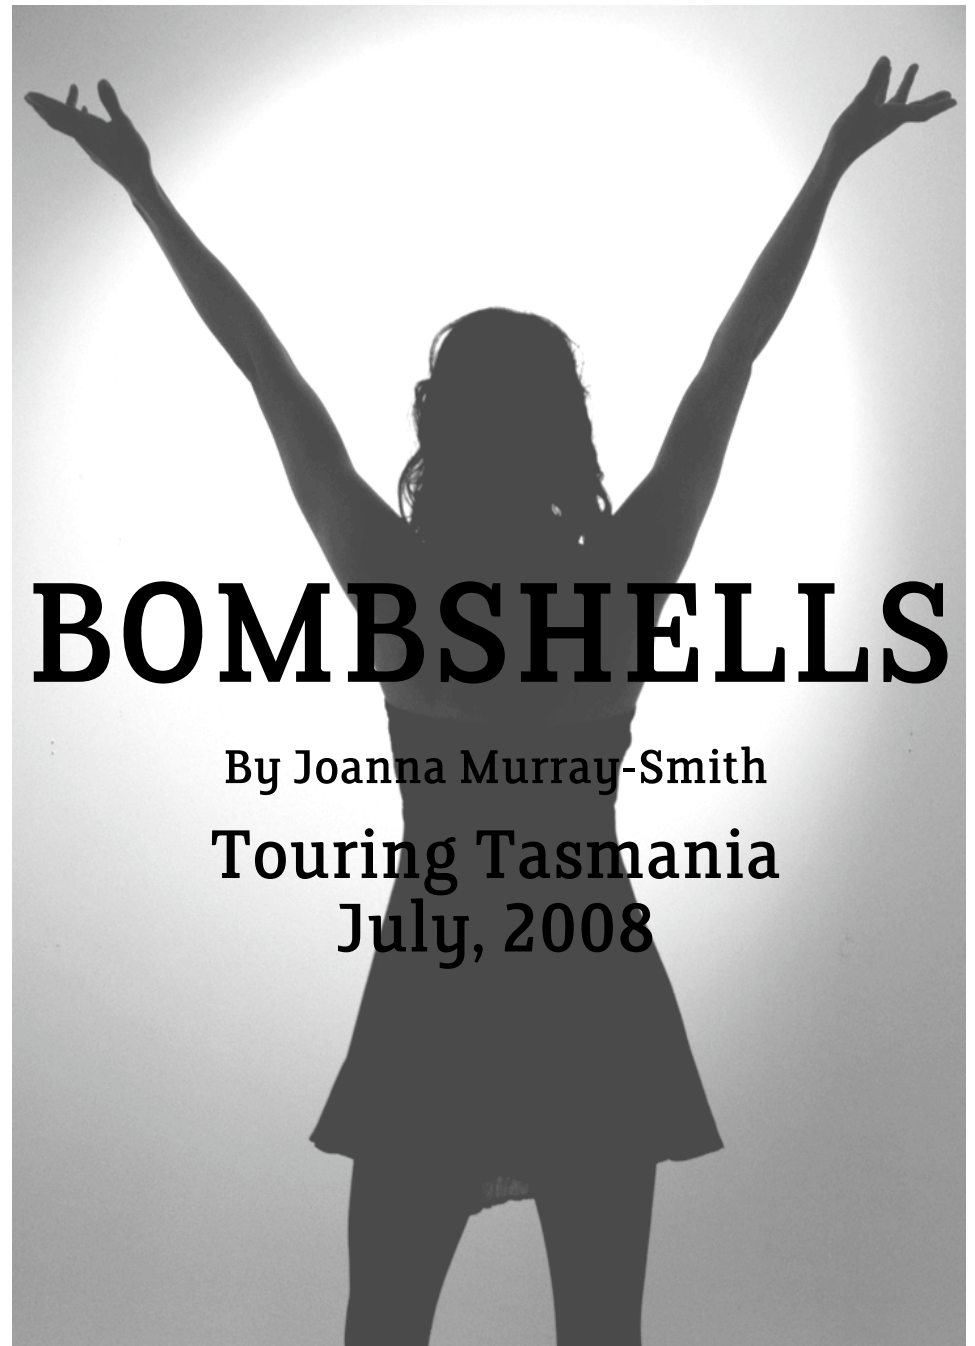

The Tasmanian Theatre Company was launched on May 27th, 2008 by Deputy Premier of Tasmania, the Hon Lara Giddings MHA and luminous and internationally regarded actress, Essie Davis.

The TTC's mission is to enrich Tasmania as a place to live by making, presenting and facilitating exceptional theatrical experiences with an emphasis on contemporary new work. Its vision is to be an icon theatre company showcasing the best of Australian and particularly Tasmanian theatre.
